

User Guide

Background:

There is no effective & trusted platform to match recent graduate skills to the available job and career path. LinkedInGrad would be the ideal fresh grad experience platform helping graduates and employers find their perfect match.

Details:

Three capabilities developed so far are -

Capability #1

Description - Top Matched Jobs expanded by default when LinkedInGrad user lands on Jobs screen.

Prototype - <https://www.figma.com/proto/zwuXhfMhj2nbzX6vfwa5oD/LinkedIn-Udacity-Project?node-id=2%3A969&scaling=scale-down&page-id=0%3A1&starting-point-node-id=2%3A969>

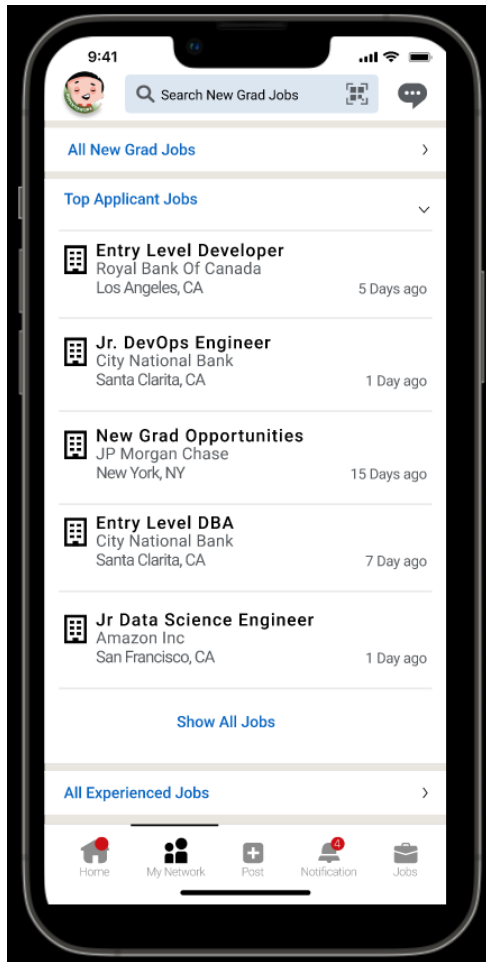

How to Use

- When a LinkedInGrad user lands on Jobs screen, he should be able to see following sections in order-
 - a) "All new Grad Jobs"
 - b) "Top Applicant Jobs"
 - c) "All experienced Jobs"
- "Top Applicant Jobs" section should be expanded by default and displays matched jobs.

Known Issues

- This section will be blank if no skills entered in the LinkedInGrad profile.

Capability #2

Description - # of matched jobs on myLinkedInGradprofile screen displayed and is a direct link to the jobs screen.

Prototype - <https://www.figma.com/proto/zwuXhfMhj2nbzX6vfw5oD/LinkedIn-Udacity-Project?node-id=2%3A969&scaling=scale-down&page-id=0%3A1&starting-point-node-id=2%3A969>

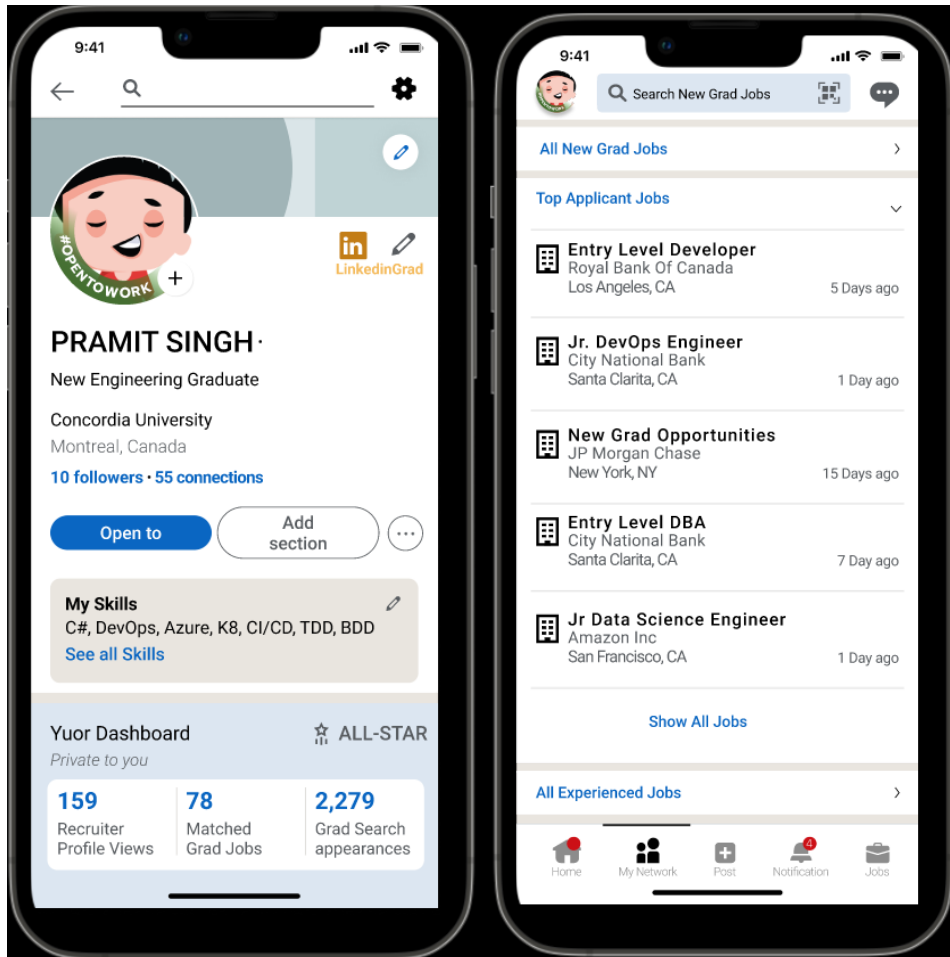

How to Use

- When a LinkedInGraduser lands on Profile screen, he should be able to see "# Matched Grad Jobs" link under the existing "Your Dashboard" section.
- "# Matched Jobs" should be reloaded on every screen refresh and/or revisit
- Clicking on the "#Matched Grad Jobs" link should load the Jobs screen w/"Top Applicant Jobs" section expanded by default.

Known Issues

- This section will be blank if no skills entered in the LinkedInGrad profile.

Capability #3

Description – All Grad jobs should be visible on the jobs screen when the section is expanded.

Prototype - <https://www.figma.com/proto/zwuXhfMhj2nbzX6vfwa5oD/Linkedin-Udacity-Project?node-id=2%3A969&scaling=scale-down&page-id=0%3A1&starting-point-node-id=2%3A969>

How to Use

- When a LinkedInGraduser users clicks on the “All New Grad Jobs” links on the Jobs screen, he should be able to see All New Grad Jobs regardless of the skillset of the user.

Known Issues

- This section will be blank if no New Grad jobs exist. This is an unlikely scenario though as our marketing team will take care of this pre-launch.
